

Instructor Certification Program Information

Goals of the Program

The goal of the Instructor Certification Program (hereinafter Program) is to develop teachers of the Hand in Hand Parenting approach who are committed to bringing the approach to parents in their own communities and beyond. Instructor candidates develop mastery in the practice and communication of Hand in Hand Parenting and the use of Hand in Hand curricula, literature, services, and materials. Successful Instructor candidates will teach classes, conduct support groups, give talks, and work with parents in other capacities. They work independently and cooperatively with Hand in Hand. Through this Program, we aim to bring the Hand in Hand Parenting approach to parents from a wide variety of backgrounds and communities, who are in a wide variety of parenting circumstances.

Participation in this program does not guarantee that a parent will become an Instructor. On average, about half of the participants in each year's class go on to become Instructors. For those that don't, the issue is usually that family circumstances or some other unexpected situation demands their full attention. It's not easy being a parent!

In any case, we guarantee a thorough introduction to our approach, access to ten 4-hour classes or class videos, 35 mentoring conference calls, numerous additional materials, and the experienced guidance of our most seasoned Instructors. And virtually every participant who has taken this program finds that their family is transformed by the perspective, skills, and support system they have gained. We do all we can to give every participant access to all we have learned in over 30 years of supporting parents and children.

Participants become Instructors when they have shown that they consistently use Hand in Hand Parenting in their lives to tackle and resolve a number of basic parenting challenges unique to their situation; that they have built a sturdy support system; that they can identify the restimulation of stored feelings, and work on those feelings rather than act upon them; that they lead their families well; that they are sensitive to the situations of parents working in difficult circumstances; that they can consistently use and model the emotional release process; that they can communicate the ideas and application of Hand in Hand Parenting clearly and accurately; and that they can listen deeply and well to other parents.

Duration of the Program

Although our Certification Program is designed to take one year, individuals may take more or less than a year to complete the Program, as they come to the program with widely differing experience and skill sets. We aim to offer mentoring, support, and activities that develop participants' understandings and skills. The most vivid and useful learning experiences will take place as each participant uses the Listening Tools of Hand in Hand Parenting in his or her own life.

Certification Levels

Two levels of Instructor Certification are available through successful completion of the Program: Instructor and Assistant Instructor. Hand in Hand Instructors are certified to teach our 6-week Hand in Hand Parenting Starter Class and our 3-week Understanding Tears and Tantrums class.

Materials for these classes are available in English, Spanish, Hebrew, and Japanese; further translations are underway. Certified Instructors are qualified to represent Hand in Hand when they work locally to teach, give talks, and conduct Parent Support Groups and Study Groups. After completion of the Instructor Certification Program and after instructors have acquired local experience teaching and leading groups, they may teach online.

Prerequisites for the Program

1. To be considered for the Program, you must have completed at least one of the following Instructor-led classes:
 - a. Hand in Hand Parenting Starter Class either online or in person
 - b. Professionals Intensive Class

This is required because this is what you will be teaching, so we want you to take a class with a certified instructor so you can really see what it is like. It's different than reading the book or the self-guided courses.

2. You must be able to practice the Hand in Hand Parenting Listening Tools with children, between the ages of infancy and ten, regularly throughout the duration of this Program. All candidates must have regular contact in a very close relationship with either their own children or with other children they are close to and see regularly. You must also have permission to use all of the tools with these children. Your experience in using the listening tools will help to serve as a core of stories you tell as you teach. This will help parents and caregivers visualize how the Listening Tools work, and how parents and children respond. If you are not a parent and do not have close relationships with children and/or permission to use the tools with them, our Hand in Hand Parenting Starter Class or the Parent or Professionals Intensive classes, will give you the foundation you need to use these tools in your child care center, counseling practice, or other work with parents and children.

3. We seek candidates who already have a constituency among parents. Others look to them for support and/or perspective; they have built mutually supportive relationships with other parents; they are able to talk openly about their parenting challenges; they possess good communication skills; they are interested in working with others toward the common good.
4. We require that certification candidates have lived in their current geographic area for a minimum of 18 months, as the Program works most effectively for those who have built established relationships and have a ready constituency in their community. This also applies to other major life transitions such as getting married, divorced, or bringing a baby or new child into your home. Our experience informs us that candidates are most successful in completing our program once they have given themselves time to transition into their new situation.
5. You must have enough time to engage with our program fully. We estimate that successful completion of the program will require 25-35 hours per month, not including the time you spend working with your children. Our standards for certification are high.
6. We will consider applicants who are currently taking psychoactive medication(s). However, prescribed psychoactive medications are designed to alter our access to emotions and attention, and they can change the way that our emotional repair processes works. The use of these processes is central to our parenting approach. We must assess an applicant's ability to model and benefit from obtaining emotional release. Modeling emotional release at appropriate times is a requirement of every Instructor, as it helps build the safety for others to benefit from our approach. Please note that we do not ever recommend that an individual cease taking a prescribed medication without professional guidance. We understand that such medications provide needed support for many.

How to Apply

The link to our application form will be available on or before April 1. Please submit your contact information via our Certification Interest Form at the bottom of this page, if you have not already done so. We will email you when the application is available. The application deadline is May 31.

Time Commitments and Logistics of Participation

PLAN A - COVID-19 Shelter in Place Restrictions are in effect

All participants are welcome to attend the ten monthly classes over nine months' time, participating via Zoom conferencing from home. If your time zone or circumstances do not allow participation live, a recording will be made available to you to be viewed at your convenience.

All classes will be held on the first Saturday of the month. The order of the topics mentioned below is subject to change.

Class	Topic
Class 1	The Hand in Hand Parenting Approach, and our Program
Class 2	Special Time, Staylistening, and Listening Partnership Theory
Class 3	Setting Limits and Playlistening
Class 4	Special Time & Playlistening for Parents
Class 5	Empowering Parents
Class 6	Play Event with Children of Local Learners
Class 7	Leading Small Groups
Class 8	Filling Your Teaching Toolbox
Class 9	Comparison with Other Approaches
Class 10	Confidentiality and Boundaries

PLAN B - COVID-19 Shelter-in-Place restrictions have been lifted

Local participants (in the San Francisco Bay Area)

Local participants in the Program attend ten training class meetings over nine months' time. All local participants will be video-recorded for training purposes. Videos will be posted (by the following Friday) and viewed only by distance learners in this Program.

All classes will be held on the first Saturday of the month in the afternoon in Palo Alto, CA at 555 Waverley Street. The order of the topics mentioned below is subject to change.

Class	Topic
Class 1	The Hand in Hand Parenting Approach, and our Program
Class 2	Special Time, Staylistening, and Listening Partnership Theory
Class 3	Setting Limits and Playlistening
Class 4	Special Time & Playlistening for Parents
Class 5	Empowering Parents
Class 6	Play Event with Children of Local Learners
Class 7	Leading Small Groups
Class 8	Filling Your Teaching Toolbox

Class 9	Comparison with Other Approaches
Class 10	Confidentiality and Boundaries

Distance learning participants

Distance learners participate by observing the video recordings of the training classes.

Online classroom for all participants

Everyone will have access to an online classroom, which will serve as the digital hub for the Program. The class videos, additional video and audio recordings, handouts, and homework that accompany the trainings are posted there. All participants must have e-mail and a high-speed Internet connection, and be able to navigate within an online classroom.

Time Commitment

A minimum time commitment of 25-35 hours per month of direct study and training participation is expected. In addition to assigned reading and work with information presented via video and audio, participants will use Listening Tools regularly for their own support and within their families. Participants are expected to develop at least one effective weekly Listening Partnership that is a minimum of 30 minutes each way; this is an ongoing requirement for all our Instructors. Each participant (and Instructor) must also do Special Time with their child(ren) on a frequent and regular basis. Each participant commits to doing 4-8 hours of volunteer work doing Hand in Hand administrative or outreach projects during the training year to develop a broader understanding of the organization and its place in the community.

Weekly Mentoring Teleconference Calls

All certification candidates participate in a weekly teleconference-call-based mentoring group. These calls provide the opportunity for participants to ask questions, share their experience using Hand in Hand Parenting, and gain experience giving and receiving emotional support. Each participant must be available at a minimum of two of the call times we offer. We will put together mentoring calls based on participant’s choices; not all posted call times will ultimately become mentoring call times. Each mentoring call group will consist of between 3 and 5 parents and will be led by one of our experienced Certified Instructors. There will be at least 35 calls over the duration of the Program, each call lasting no more than 70 minutes.

Program Requirements

During the Program, participants will complete the following:

Gather and Preserve Experience

- 1. Write or record 5 anecdotes about the successful use of Special Time, Playlistening, Setting Limits, and Staylistening with a child you know. Write 5 anecdotes about how Listening Partnerships have worked to help you solve problems as a parent.

Candidates will submit written anecdotes, 25 in all, to their call mentor for review, then to the Hand in Hand Certification Interviewer. These anecdotes will help to serve as a core of stories you tell as you teach. They will help parents and caregivers visualize how Listening Tools work, and how parents and children respond. They will often be the most vivid impressions that parents retain and their strongest motivation to try Listening Tools themselves.

Build Your Support System

- 2. Establish and make good personal use of at least one weekly Listening Partnership. This is an ongoing requirement of every active Instructor and Instructor-in-training.

Learn to offload emotional tension and to solve problems using the benefits of listening, and help your listening partner to do the same. Please complete our online course, "Building a Listening Partnership," before the Program start date, September 7, 2019. This course will be provided to you free of charge.

- 3. Attend and make good use of Weekly Mentoring Teleconference Calls.

Each candidate will be assigned a weekly phone call for mentoring, support, and personal practice of the Listening Tools. Candidates need to maintain an 80% attendance rate or better. For call scheduling purposes, candidates need to be able to attend at least two of the call times we post, although they will be assigned only one call time. We cannot guarantee the availability of any one call time until after all participants have been admitted and calls have been assigned.

- 4. Learn to lead a Hand in Hand Parenting Study Group.

This will be your teaching "practicum," done with a set of simple guidelines and the skills you will have gained. Before leading a Study Group, 15 of your anecdotes must have been reviewed and approved by your mentoring call leader. Candidates must wait until February 2020, at the earliest, to do this.

- 5. Where available, attend a Hand in Hand Parenting SkillBuilding Group

Attend a local Hand in Hand SkillBuilding Group to develop your Leadership skills and to benefit from the group support and learning, if one is available.

Broaden Your Understanding of Hand in Hand Parenting and its Relationship to Other Parenting Approaches

6. Read, understand, and be prepared to speak in public about the following 10 articles and booklets:

Helping Children Play Together
Healing the Hurt of Separation
Biting, Pushing, Pulling Hair – Helping Children with Aggression
“It’s Mine!” All About Sharing
Sibling Solutions
Setting Limits with Children
Getting Through School Struggles
Helping Young Children Sleep
Banishing the Bogeyman! Healing Children’s Fears
Fathers Are Primary Parents

Notice what questions parents ask. Read what Hand in Hand has to say about these issues, and begin to field the questions posed by friends and family.

7. Become familiar with the basic tenets of the main parenting approaches talked about in the U.S., or your home country, and be able to explain the ways Hand in Hand Parenting is congruent and/or incongruent with these approaches.

8. Read recommended books, articles, handouts and listen to / view recordings about the brain science that supports Hand in Hand Parenting. Give simple brain science overviews on the importance of connection as part of the talks that you give. Understand what the brain science and research literature tells us about connection and emotional release as well as what produces the best outcomes for children long-term.

Strengthen Your Communication Skills

9. Where possible, candidates will practice speaking by assisting Hand in Hand leaders with talks and classes.

Distance Learners will organize small groups of parents to give talks to, and will invite a supporter to help them personally evaluate how the talk went.

Learn to say, “I don’t know, I’ll get back to you,” when you don’t know how to answer a parent’s question, and then follow through with that parent.

Demonstrate Your Ability to Teach

(after submitting 15 anecdotes and obtaining your mentor’s OK)

11. Give a general introductory talk on Hand in Hand Parenting.

Where available, candidates will have an experienced Hand in Hand leader present to help you evaluate how you give information and support. Candidates will present our approach with warmth, respect, accuracy, and effectiveness.

Candidates will ask participants to fill out evaluation forms, which must be submitted to the Hand in Hand Certification Interviewer.

12. Organize and conduct a 6-week Study Group in Hand in Hand Parenting. During the second half of our Program, with your mentor's approval, you will set up and lead your own Hand in Hand Parenting Study Group. Use your weekly mentoring calls to be mentored in group leadership and emotional release support skills. Gather a group of 3 to 7 parents who are interested in learning Hand in Hand Parenting. Follow the guidelines we provide, explain each Listening Tool and mentor parents in their use; provide a support group format for at least half of each meeting. Participants will fill out short evaluations, which will be submitted to Hand in Hand before your final Certification Interview. The meeting length for 3-4 parents is 90 minutes and 2 hours for 5-7 parents.

Join Our Leader's Group, Get to Know Hand in Hand

Excellent leadership doesn't happen in a vacuum! We want to get to know you, learn how to support you, and help you develop supportive relationships with other Hand in Hand leaders.

13. Participate in Hand in Hand classes, SkillBuilding groups, the blog, teleseminars, talks, and weekend workshops, to connect with the broader Hand in Hand community and build your listening, presentation, and support group leadership skills.

14. Complete 4 to 8 hours of volunteer work doing Hand in Hand administrative and/or outreach projects during the training class year, to become more familiar with the organization and its many and varied ways of supporting parents.

Show Us What You've Learned, and Plan Your Next Steps

15. Pass an oral interview that will cover various topics central to the Hand in Hand Parenting approach and include a review of the skills and understandings you've gained, as well as basic leadership qualities you've developed. The interview will also include a request that you answer the kind of parent questions that typically arise at talks and in classes. The results of the interview, the recommendation of your mentoring call leader, and the quality of the work you've done throughout the year will determine whether you will be certified at that time. The levels of certification available are Instructor and Assistant Instructor. The results of your interview will not close doors to further progress.

Certification Candidates Receive:

- 4 hours of in-person class time or ~4 hours of class video class each month.
- Weekly mentoring and support calls for the duration of the Program, length between 50 and 70 minutes each, depending upon the number of participants on your call.
- Access to a private online classroom to communicate with and learn from other candidates and trainers.
- Free access to all of Hand in Hand's self-guided video courses.
- Access to potential Listening Partners through the Program.
- Opportunities to develop speaking skills and experience with parent questions.

Certification Candidate Responsibilities:

- Complete the 8-hour Building a Listening Partnership online course (no fee required) before the program begins.
- Regularly attend class meetings in person, or watch the video recordings online, and attend the weekly mentoring teleconference calls.
- Refrain from multitasking while participating in Program activities.
- Review class materials, do homework, and participate in class discussions.
- Support one another and seek support during the Certification process.
- Provide feedback on classes, workshops, talks, teleseminars, and presentations.
- Provide assistance with Hand in Hand programs, talks, workshops or classes, by invitation.
- Pay tuition according to the options described below.
- Note: attendance at the weekend Retreat for Instructors and Instructor candidates is optional, but highly encouraged. Fees will be as affordable as possible.

Certification Program – Schedule Information

Key Program Dates - Subject to change

May 31	Applications due
June 20	Early registration due with 10% discount on fee
July 10	Early registration due with 5% discount on fee
July 25	Regular registration due
August 15	Final mentoring call schedule is published
August 25	Late registration due with $150 registration fee
Early September	First class meeting - either remote or in Palo Alto, California, U.S.A.
September 9th-13th	First week of mentoring calls
May	Last class meeting - either remote or in Palo Alto, California, U.S.A.
Early June	Last day of mentoring calls
June 8	Certification Interviews begin, scheduled upon request
Last weekend of July (Final dates to be determined)	Weekend Retreat for Instructors & Instructor Candidates, Santa Cruz Mountains, California, U.S.A. (optional; separate registration and fees)

Weekly Mentoring Call Schedule

Potential Certification Program Weekly Mentoring Teleconference Call times will be posted by May 1. We ask all applicants to indicate all the call times possible for them, selecting two calls at minimum. We will do our best to create calls that work as applicants' first or second choice, however, we cannot guarantee any particular call time. We will communicate the final schedule for mentoring calls by mid-August. The calls will start in early September and end in early June. Some calls that fall on US holidays may necessitate slight temporary changes in the call schedule. The uneven starts and ends to Daylight Savings Time in countries around the world means that some callers' scheduled calls must shift by an hour or two during the year. These shifting schedules will largely affect participants in countries other than the US, and all shifts will be announced well in advance.

Certification Class Topics Overview

We will cover these topics during the program, although not necessarily in this order.

Certification Process

- Overview of the Certification Process

Hand in Hand Parenting

- Our framework: the importance of connection in optimum functioning
- Overview of Hand in Hand Parenting
- Connecting with each other

Special Time and Staylistening

- Special Time – Solving problems by warming the relationship
- Staylistening – Solving problems by encouraging emotional release
- The process of listening
- Contrast with conventional parenting approaches
- The effect of childhood on parenting

Limits and Playlistening

- Setting Limits – Solving problems by listening, setting a limit, and listening again
- Playlistening – Solving problems (aggression, fears) through laughter and roughhousing
- Problem solving with Setting Limits, Staylistening, and Playlistening

Listening Partnerships

- Listening Skills for Parents
- Listening Partnership Theory – the five principles of listening
- Steps to becoming an effective listener
- How to more effectively use a listener for yourself
- Using a Listening Partnership well
- How to use a Listening Support Group well

The Supporting Research

- What does brain science tell us?
- What produces the best outcomes for children long-term?
- The Hand in Hand logic model of change
- Researching connection: The Parent-Child Connectedness Framework (ETR review of literature, and related studies)
- Research Supporting Special Time
- The Science of Time-in; Research on Crying
- Research Supporting Playlistening and Power Dynamics in the family
- Parenting Styles and the Involvement/Expectation Continuum (Baumrind), and Why Not Use Behavior Modification?
- Understanding Attachment Theory
- The Emotional Recovery Process in Trauma
- How does Emotional Memory Work?
- The Review of Scientific Literature Related to Hand in Hand Parenting
- The Latest Research in Parenting

Adult-to-Adult Time

- Adult-to-Adult Special Time
- Introduction to the Benefits of Physical Play

Comparison with Other Approaches

- Parenting approaches: the big picture

- Other current parenting methods and how they are congruent or incongruent with Hand in Hand Parenting
- How other approaches see emotion and connection
- What makes Hand in Hand Parenting a unique approach?
- Addressing common objections to the Hand in Hand Parenting Approach

Leading Small Groups

- Strategies for leading small groups
- Using the five principles of listening

Empowering Parents

- Continuum of Parent Leadership
- Listening Partnerships
- Leading Your Family
- The Parent Rescue Squad

Filling Your Teaching Toolbox

- Becoming a Hand in Hand Professional
- Developing Your Teaching Plan
- Anecdotes and their importance
- Anecdote sharing and development
- Illustrating your points with “body pictures”
- Offering a variety of solutions
- Answering questions outside your experience
- Practice speaking, demonstrating, leading, answering questions, handling problems

Special Topics

- Helping Children with Aggression
- Using Listening Tools with Physical Injury or Illness

Building Your Teaching Practice

- How does Hand in Hand do outreach?
- How do Hand in Hand leaders convey information?
- Reaching out to build relationships in your community
- Creating an annual outreach plan

Confidentiality and Boundaries

- Handling difficult situations in groups and classes
- Boundaries issues that can arise
- Mandated Reporting Information (what to do when you suspect abuse)

Show Us What You’ve Learned – Certification Interviews: Summer

- Oral interview, scheduled individually
- Various topics central to Hand in Hand Parenting
- Review of Skills and Understanding
- Answer parent questions that typically arise at talks and in classes
- Result of interview and quality of the work you’ve done throughout the year will determine your certification level (Teacher or Assistant).

Weekend Instructors Retreat - (Optional)

Usually the last weekend of July in the Santa Cruz Mountains, California.

Nearest airport is San Jose, CA

- Optional attendance, fee not included in this Program
- Benefit from listening time and experience-sharing with other instructors and certification candidates.
- Emphasis on building support, communication skills, and community to enhance your work teaching Hand in Hand Parenting.
- Enjoy a break from parenting

Tuition Fee Structure, Class Benefits, and Refund Policy

Tuition Fee Structure for New Candidates

The regular cost of the Program is $3,490. There is a $340 non-refundable deposit due by July 25 to reserve your spot. The deposit is applied to the cost of the program. The remaining balance of $3150 is paid in ten monthly installments of $315 from August to May.

We will charge a late registration fee of $150 for all registrations after July 25.

A limited number of scholarships are available. We accept scholarship applications and award scholarships after applicants have been accepted. Each student is expected to make payments toward the program, as there are no 100% scholarships. Awards typically range from 25-50% of the total cost. We look at finances, where you live, your constituency, and your personal support network when making awards. Once you are accepted to the Program contact our Program Manager at program@handinhandparenting.org for an application. All scholarship decisions will be made in August.

Tuition Fee Structure for Returning Candidates

If you are a returning candidate, please contact our Program Manager at program@handinhandparenting.org for details about fees. Local candidates may apply to return to participate in the 10 Saturday classes for a fee, and all candidates may apply to take the course a second time at full fee. These applications will be considered only after all current year participants have been enrolled, and applicants will be accepted on a space-available basis.

Class Benefits (Discounts):

If you register for the Instructor Certification Program, you are eligible to

- Receive free access to all of Hand in Hand's self-guided online classes once the Program begins.
- Receive an entire set of Hand in Hand booklets, Hand in Hand Starter Class manual, and a Program binder.

This offer cannot be combined with other offers.

Refund Policy

If you choose to withdraw from the Program, you must notify the Program Manager via email at program@handinhandparenting.org and return the binder and class manuals.

You may keep the Listening to Children set of nine booklets. You will then be entitled to a prorated refund, based on the date of notification. Once Hand in Hand receives the binder and class manuals, Hand in Hand will retain an amount equal to the non-refundable deposit plus an amount corresponding to the number of mentoring calls that were held before the notification date. The remaining amount will be refunded.

The refund policy for scholarship candidates will be communicated individually to each scholarship candidate when the scholarship is granted.